YES—You might get by with this Guide another year, but if you knew what was going into the edition for 1923 you would file your order for that number now and insure yourself a Happy New Year. Address the publisher, Bullinger—Boston.

COUNTIES, COUNTY SEATS

AND

Geographical Position of Every County in the United States,

WITH PLACES WHERE RECORDS ARE KEPT IN EACH STATE.

The following lists contain:—first, the name of the County;—second, the name of the County Seat, or County Court-house, where County records are kept and County business transacted;—third, the approximate Geographical position of the County in the State; C, for Center; E, for East; N, for North; W, for West; S, for South; N E, for North-east; N W, for North-west; S E, for South-east; S W, for South-west. The Italic notes at the head of each State, in regard to places of Record of Deeds, Mortgages, &c., explain themselves. Names in CAPITAL letters, as MONTGOMERY, in Alabama, are State Capitals.

THERE are a few people in tombs along the banks of the Nile who are not making mistakes. It is difficult for live Americans to keep up the pace set by these dead Egyptians, but the publishers of this Guide are doing and have done everything within human power to eliminate errors. Patrons who discover anything wrong in this volume will do the publishers a favor that will be much appreciated by reporting it promptly.
